The iconic landscape of the Val d'Orcia is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, characterized by hypnotizing hills topped by fortified communities and celebrated in many Renaissance paintings.

Against the backdrop of a quintessential Tuscan landscape between Rome and Florence, Monteverdi is located in a Medieval village and features ancient buildings, lush gardens, lingering green spaces.

Location:

- Rome: 2 hours
- Florence: 1:30 hour
- Chiusi (train station): 30 minutes
